Riskconnect, Inc. Taps Jill Cannon for Regional Account Executive Role

With Wide Acceptance of its Cloud Computing Risk Management Software Solutions,
Riskconnect Continues Hiring Rapidly

MARIETTA, Ga. January 19, 2010 – Independent risk management software company Riskconnect, Inc. announced today, that in spite of an economy that has severely impaired start-ups and brought many small, mid-size and even Fortune 500 companies to their knees, Riskconnect continues to hire rapidly and taps Jill Cannon, previously Director, Allied North America Insurance Brokerage, as its new Regional Account Executive over the Midwest and Southwest Region.

“This suite of products and this management team are in a different class. Risk managers are just starting to see it,” Cannon said. “The reputations of Bob Morrell and Riskconnect are becoming widely known to all in the risk management and safety industries. Their new approach to risk management is a welcomed change to this industry. I am so excited to reach out to my network with Riskconnect's cloud computing model and enlighten risk managers with this game-changing, enterprise-class suite of software products and service.”

“We are thrilled to have Jill as a part of our team,” said Bob Morrell, Chief Executive Officer of Riskconnect. “A proven leader, with more than 15 years insurance industry and technical sales experience, Jill brings a ready pipeline and complete knowledge of competitive systems. Upon review of Riskconnect's Platform and solutions, her excitement could not be contained. Jill immediately saw our key differentiators and is ready to help companies capitalize.”

Cannon was the top sales producer in the Southern Region for Marsh and CS STARS in 2004 and recipient of the Marsh “Millennium Award” for Outstanding Sales Performance in 2002, 2003 and 2004. Cannon was also a member of the top sales region for CS STARS from 2003 to 2006. Other recent positions include Director, Allied North America Insurance Brokerage; Vice President, Producer, Arthur J. Gallagher & Co.; and management positions at Travelers Insurance Group and Cendent Corporation.
